Guidelines for collecting Stories from LLL-Learners

The "excellent learner" is not a perfect human being, but one who has to empty serenity and sensitivity to learn "(Cury, 2004, p.17).

Innovativeness RVCC

Capacity to value skills acquired on informal ways

Empower adult learners for the labor market

Why this practice is Good ?

Aims to promote adult reflection on his life path;

Centering it in a narrative material consisting of memories that he considers significant "experiences" of his learning;

His evolution in social and cultural itineraries;

Representations he built of himself in a natural environment

Problems

Making this recognition more innovative and directed to a technological society, consists in creating a digital language recognition.

Ensure the consistence of an European Framework for recognition of skills

Ensure the consistence of an European Framework
for recognition of skills

Challenges to fly on a profit direction

Learners as Believers

My
circumstances
do not make me
what I am, they

Learners as Believers

*My
circumstances
do not make me
what I am, they reveal who I have chosen to be..*
